

I'M GONNA NAME A PLANET AFTER YOU

G Am
I'm gonna name a planet after you, sixty trillion galaxies away
G Am
No one else knows it's there, I just discovered it today
G Am
Most heavenly of bodies, whose beauty only I would know
G Am
And if I had to live without you, that is where I'd go

Am G
Your birds I would hear, your tears I would cry
Am G
Your rain I would smell, your sigh I would sigh
Am G Am
Where else would I go, what else what I do?
Am D G
I'm gonna name a planet after you

G Am
Evenings there would softly fall; the moon, never cold
G Am
Its beams would kiss my eyelids, my howls turned to gold
G Am
The tides would rise to comfort me, ocean at my feet
G Am
Waves appear and disappear, like everyone I meet

Am G
Your tea I would drink, your rainbows I would see
Am G
Your heart I would hear, your elephants I'd set free
Am G Am
I would hold your breath till everything turned blue
Am D G
I'm gonna name a planet after you
