

INTO THE SUNSET

B E
The jockey got fat but the horse got fatter
B E
Piling more and more on their platters
F# E
Always came in last so what did it matter

B E
They never actually raced at the track
B E
Both of them had a bad back
F# E
Imagination took up the slack

B E
The horse and the jockey were a bit demented
B E
Detours couldn't be prevented
F# E
Even the wheel gets reinvented

B E
The jockey was not your usual jockey
B E
His horse-riding skills were rocky
F# E
Technically the horse was a donkey

E
Nothing's a problem
B
Till you decide
E
The horse took the jockey
F#
On one hell of a ride

B E B E B E F#

B E
Into the sunset they rode
B E
Wasn't a real one we're told
F# E
They made it real by being bold
