IRISH GOODBYE

A Every eye in the discotheque was on the man in green E
His molecules were boogying like no one's ever seen A
He entered a dimension where his body turned to light
In a trillionth of a second, he was gone from sight
chorus: A D
Where did he go, does anybody know?  A E
He was here just a moment ago A Bm
Vanished without warning making everyone cry  E  A
This is all we get from him, an Irish goodbye
A The United Nations brought him in to try and save the world E
He stood up and gave his speech and every pencil twirled A
Then when he sat back down he went right through the floor E
All the way to China, maybe Singapore
[chorus]
bridge: E
He never stayed anywhere for more than a few D
Time to leave the party was always pretty soon
No one ever taught him to say goodbye  D  E
He was more of a hello kind of guy
A One day the disappearing man did not appear at all E
Everyone was waiting for him at Niagara Falls A
No word, or burial, or single ash to spread  E
He didn't go out with a bang, explosions hurt his head

[chorus]
