

PRESLEY ELVIRA

G
It was silent when she took the stage
C
Then the DJ played "Heartbreak Hotel"
G
And although she was looking her age
Bm
That strip club was under her spell
Am G
All those guys, she made them all cry
C
She danced just like The King
G D
Just hours after he died
G
As a kid she was handsome and tall
C
And shy and alone and afraid
G
When she thought of ending it all
Bm
His records were all that she played
Am G
Dancing along, she couldn't go wrong
C
Found the strength to go on
G D
In a world where she'd never belong

G
So to him she devoted her life
C
By dancing in downtown L.A.
G
She would never be anyone's wife
Bm
Ended up at the Bottom's Up Cabaret
Am G
And on that sad night, all decked out in white
C
She kept everything on
G D
And had them turn down the lights
C
And closing her eyes
G
She whispered goodbye
Am
Then heard him walk up behind
D
And stand right beside her
C
He said May I have this dance
Bm
Presley Elvira
Am D
Dance with me
