

THIS MUCH GONE

A F#m
The desk right in front of mine is empty, the whole school knows why
D E
They found him in a field last night beneath an unseen sky
A F#m
He sat right there just yesterday in his flannel coat
D E
That had a kinda minty smell from the Kools he smoked

chorus:

D A
Gone too soon but never gone for good
D E
The hole keeps getting bigger than we thought it could
D A
We might have final words to say
E A D E
But this much gone never goes away

A F#m
The laugh he had was silent, sadder than a cry
D E
He wanted to be happy, too afraid to try
A F#m
The girl who wore his ring was quiet just like him
D E
Whenever they were holding hands he'd have a little grin

chorus + D E D E D F#m E

A F#m
I can't stop looking at the emptiest place on earth
D E
Thinking of the boy who thought he had no worth
A F#m
After school I find our teacher sitting there
D E
At that empty desk, head bowed in prayer

chorus + repeat last line
