

YOUR OYSTER NOW

G
This old world used to be my oyster
C
With lemon juice and fancy cocktail sauce
G
And a pearl of a girl who had the warmest glow
D
I had ever come across

G
Had everything a man could ask for
C
A penthouse that overlooked the bay
G
Giant corner office with my feet up on the desk
D
It would all be gone one day

chorus:

C G
You don't need to go reaching for the stars
C G
They'll just fall right in your lap
C G
Greed won't get you anywhere but lost
D
Don't get caught up in that trap
C G
You don't need to dive for any pearls
C G
Love the one you already found
C G
It's your turn, son, the world belongs to you
D G
It's your oyster now

bridge:

D
Nothing wrong with oysters Rockefeller
C
Or a shiny little fork
D
Ain't nothing wrong with Dom Perignon
C D
Just be careful where you aim that cork

G
My heyday ended unremarkably
C
A cheap gold watch with my name engraved
G
My precious Pearl disappeared one rainy night
D
I went after her too late

G
She waved goodbye from a balcony
C
Her lips were blue with Curacao
G
This world isn't mine anymore, son
D
It's your oyster now

chorus:

C G
You don't need to go grabbing for the gusto
C G
The gusto will grab ahold of you
C G
Just sit back and enjoy it while it lasts
D
Nothing more you have to do
C G
You don't need to dive for any pearls
C G
Love the one you already found
C G
It's your turn, son, the world belongs to you
D G
It's your oyster now
